Dear MassEcon Member,

We look forward to seeing you at many of our upcoming events this summer. Be sure to register for our Annual Conference on June 15th!

MassEcon News

Register for MassEcon's 19th Annual Conference

On June 15th, MassEcon will hold its Annual Conference, entitled "Five Trends That Have Transformed the Economy Forever: Why This Matters for Massachusetts Companies," at the Newton Marriott Hotel. Panelists for the event include Mohamad Ali, Chairman of MassTLC; Jeff Beck, CFO of iRobot; Dr. Catherine Mann, Professor at Brandeis University; and Dr. Prat Moghe, Vice President of Big Data Appliance Strategy & Products at IBM. The panel will be moderated by Bob Boudreau, CEO of The Winter, Wyman Companies. Click here to register for this event.

MassEcon on the Road

From April 28 - May 1st, Doug Kehlhem represented MassEcon at the CoreNet Global Summit in San Diego, CA. The Summit featured speakers and general sessions focused on leadership, manufacturing, corporate real estate, and technology. For more information, click here.

On May 23rd, while attending the Medical Device and Manufacturing (MD&M) trade show in Philadelphia with Team New England, MassEcon hosted a reception at the Four Seasons Hotel in Philadelphia for thirty guests to showcase the assets of Massachusetts and its regions. Executives from corporate location advisory firms including Biggins, Lacy, Shapiro, and Co.; Studley; Colliers; Cushman and Wakefield; and Ernst & Young learned about what Massachusetts has to offer expanding companies. The Massachusetts delegation included staffers from MassEcon, MassDevelopment, the Southcoast Development Partnership, Northeast Utilities, Dacon, and VHB as well as representatives of Massachusetts companies including PremaTech Advanced Ceramics. Thanks to sponsors Dacon, VHB, and the Southcoast Development Partnership!

Regulatory Reform Initiative - Presentation to MassEcon

On May 16th, Assistant Secretary of Economic Development April Anderson Lamoureux gave a special presentation to MassEcon members along with Alicia McDevitt, Deputy Counselor of MassDEP. The presentation focused on the Governor's New Regulatory Reform Initiative, and its impact on the small business community in Massachusetts. Thank you to the IBM Innovation Center for hosting the presentation.

Projects

#2527:

MassEcon and MOBD are working with a Somerville-based food company. The company is expanding and would like to lease an existing 40,000 SF building within 5-miles of their current location. Notes: A food grade building with cooler/freezer space, and one loading dock are all preferred.

#2526:

MassEcon and member Newmark Knight Frank are working with a Japan-based life sciences company looking to establish a Massachusetts presence in the Cambridge/Boston area. A small amount of sales office space is needed to start before the addition of significant R&D/manufacturing. Notes: Newmark Knight Frank will be arranging a tour for the company officials during their visit for the BIO Convention in Boston.

The Massachusetts Internship Collaborative offers college students a state-wide internship database. Register your company's internship opportunities here.

Help the Commonwealth improve its internship program by taking this brief (really!) survey here.

Please contact Doug Kehlhem for more information. Doug has fielded site search inquiries from 34 companies since January 2012.

Staff in Action

Susan Houston spent the past month on several items including finalizing the panel for MassEcon's upcoming June Annual Conference; organizing April Anderson Lamoureux's special presentation to MassEcon Members; and strengthening relationships with MassEcon partners through targeted meetings. Susan also met with MOITI's trade representative in Israel and contributed to a roundtable on international travel featuring the Governor and the Acting Director of Massport.

Doug Kehlhem spent much of May representing MassEcon at several out-of-state events and receptions, including the CoreNet Global Summit in San Diego and the Medical Device & Manufacturing Trade Show in Philadelphia. Doug also fielded several site location requests and organized a side reception in Philadelphia for local site selectors and business partners.

Sean Getchell was busy in May organizing logistics for MassEcon's upcoming events, including the Annual Conference on June 15th. Sean also attended the Solomon McCown & Company panel discussion and represented MassEcon as one of the cooperating sponsors. Sean also helped oversee and supervise MassEcon's summer interns.

Welcome to our Summer Interns!

Molly Haley is a rising senior Economics major at Wesleyan University. Her prior experience includes working in the MA State House as part of the Governor's Internship Program and interning for Susan Bysiewicz's US Senate campaign in Connecticut.

Ross Pini recently graduated from the College of William & Mary with a B.A. in Government summa cum laude and will be attending Boston College Law School in the fall. Prior to joining MassEcon, he worked as an Executive Projects and Constituent Service Intern for the Norfolk County Register of Deeds and as a Junior Assistant at Gustave White Sotheby's International Realty in Newport, RI.
